Thrive at Every Age

Stay forever young by eating right, staying active, sleeping well and training your brain to be mindful, calm and live in the moment.

Recent research shows the path to long-term health may not be as dependent on genes or good luck as we once thought; science shows that our thoughts and actions play a bigger role in overall health than we previously realized.

The foundation for a long life is established early on; the habits and mindset you pick up along the way will affect your health much more than your family traits and curses.

October 2018 General Meeting Minutes

Bridge and Bay Garden Club

GENERAL MEETING: Winn Room at the Coronado Library

October 22, 2018

Meeting was called to order by President Sandy Shortt at 9:30 a.m.

Sandy thanked all the hostesses for the beautiful Halloween inspired table, and the many yummy tidbits. She thanked Amalo for setting up and providing the coffee. There was one visitor.

Inspiration: Ann Boyd read inspirational quotes from Mark Twain.

Minutes: Approved.

Treasurer: $12,401.47. Tami Bickel, Treasurer was absent. Membership: 76. Tami will also be sending the Bayleaf. THANK YOU TAMI.

Reports: President: no reports.

Corresponding Secretary: no cards sent this month. Barbara Murphy will now send out birthday cards. Many thanks to Peg Ludtke for her years of doing this.

Karen Moore: City Manager King will keep in contact when exact dimensions for sign are in.

Programs: Barbara Murphy will now be Chairman.

Social: Kathy Beaton – she thanked the ladies who brought the treats. She wants to have a "hostess" for each meeting who will bring tablecloths, plates, etc. The Christmas Luncheon is in the planning stage. She needs volunteers. (date: first week or so of December.)

Hort Report: Teresa Alley reminded us that we should improve our soil now, and it is fall planting time, and to think of winter planting of vegetables, bare root planting and tree pruning for January.

Teresa Alley needs someone to help send gifts to police, fire, etc.

The club will, because of Tami's idea, soon start to clean and care for the front garden at Post Office.

Program: Daniel Sanchez presented three "Day of the Dead" Halloween bouquets. They were beautiful.

Andrea Luttinen
